

Nomination and Eligibility Guidelines Safety, Health and Survival Section Awards

2015 Awards

PURPOSE

The purpose of the IAFC Safety, Health and Survival Section Awards program is to recognize both organizations and individuals that have made a significant contribution to the overall environment of health and safety within their own organizations and within the fire service as a whole.

CATEGORIES

I. Alan Brunacini Fire Service Executive Safety Award (co-sponsored by Provident Insurance) – Presented annually to the chief executive officer of a fire department (of any size or composition) which has demonstrated a unique commitment to fire service health and safety.

- Must be an active member of the IAFC.
- Must be the Fire Chief, Chief Fire Officer or other top level executive of a fire department or fire brigade.

II. Billy Goldfeder Fire Service Organizational Safety Award (co-sponsored by VFIS) – Presented annually to fire service organizations (of any size or composition) that have demonstrated an outstanding commitment or significant contribution in the area of fire service health and safety. Fire departments, public agencies, private companies, or other organizations that are affiliated with or sponsors of the IAFC may be considered for this award.

- If the organization is a fire department, the fire chief must be a member of the IAFC.
- Qualifications for this award shall be at the discretion of the Awards Committee.
- Multiple organizations may be recognized in any one year.

III. Garry Briese IAFC Safety Performance Award – Presented annually to an IAFC SHS Section member in recognition of personal commitment and achievement in the area of health and safety.

- Must be an active member of the IAFC and the SHS Section.

IV. Safety Officer of the Year (co-sponsored by IAFC, FDSOA and MSA) – Presented annually to a safety officer in a fire department (of any size or composition) who has made a significant contribution to their organization and/or the fire service as a whole in the area of health and safety.

- Must perform the health and safety officer and/or incident safety officer function in the fire department.
